

Basketball

From the locker room to the court, you go out as a team

Prepared, Ready, Fighting for that American dream

Have you ever felt that intense rush?

Ball in hand, dribble, dribble, pass to the person you learned to trust

The thrill! the explosion! you jump and get the rebound

You brace yourself, arms out, as your feet hit the ground

Dribble, run, dribble, flick your wrist

Lay up goes in, what excitement! so proud, you pound your chest with your fist

You, your team, wins the game, the crowd gives a roar

You feel like you're in heaven, you have your wings, now soar
