

The Game of Names

Do you know her?

Do you know him?

Do you know their name?

Or do you know them?

The Game of Names.

You may know their name,

But not their story.

Your name defines you,

Because they don't truly know you,

What's their story?

Or what all have they done?

Do you really care?

Or is it all just for fun?

So who is She?

Who is He?

Not their name,

But who they are.
